

Social Studies Course Descriptions

12th Grade Government-

The purpose of this course is to introduce the fundamentals of American government and politics, particularly the major institutions and processes. Further, it aims to develop skills and abilities in analyzing and evaluating issues and public policies in American politics. On the one hand, this course wants to stimulate interest in American politics and impart tools that can be of use to all life-long students of politics. On the other hand, this course hopes to develop critical (that is, analytical) citizens, so that each of us will have examined reasons for the choices we make as we act in the public interest for the common good.

GRADING

Final grades will be assigned using the school-wide grading scale found in the student handbook.

In general, a total point system is used for grading with tests being weighed the heaviest.

There will be a comprehensive final at the end of each semester.

Late Work Policy

Late work is accepted but points are deducted.

11th Grade U.S. History

History, according to Webster’s dictionary, is “a chronological record of significant events often including an explanation of their causes.” This course is designed to inform students about who they are as citizens of the United States and how past events have shaped the world we live in today. We will concentrate on the historical periods from the Civil War to the present.

GRADING

Final grades will be assigned using the school-wide grading scale found in the student handbook.

In general, a total point system is used for grading with tests being weighed the heaviest.

There will be a comprehensive final at the end of each semester.

Late Work Policy

Late work is accepted but points are deducted.

World History

History, according to Webster's dictionary, is "a chronological record of significant events often including an explanation of their causes." This course is designed to inform students about who they are as citizens of the world and how past events have shaped the world we live in today.

GRADING

Final grades will be assigned using the school-wide grading scale found in the student handbook.

In general, a total point system is used for grading with tests being weighed the heaviest.

There will be a comprehensive final at the end of each semester.

Late Work Policy

Late work is accepted but points are deducted.

8th Grade Civics

The purpose of this course is to introduce the fundamentals of American government and politics at a junior high level, particularly the major institutions and processes. Further, it aims to develop skills and abilities in analyzing and evaluating issues and public policies in American politics. On the one hand, this course wants to stimulate interest in American politics and impart tools that can be of use to all life-long students of politics. On the other hand, this course hopes to develop critical (that is, analytical) citizens, so that each of us will have examined reasons for the choices we make as we act in the public interest for the common good.

GRADING

Final grades will be assigned using the school-wide grading scale found in the student handbook.

In general, a total point system is used for grading with tests being weighed the heaviest.

There will be a comprehensive final at the end of each semester.

Late Work Policy

Late work is accepted but points are deducted.

